My dear Students:

The publication of this Year Book will bring to a close the scholastic year 1946-1947. As in the past, we look forward to the Year Book in order to review your many accomplishments of the year. We have been proud of you during the year and will renew that sense of pride, in restrospect, every time we look through the Year Book in years to come.

In viewing the Year Book, a sense of deep gratitude should be ours--gratitude to Almighty God for the many blessings He has deigned to bestow upon our school; gratitude that through the generosity and cooperation of many, your Catholic schooling has been made possible.

When uncertainty and sufferings are prevalent in so many lands, we should feel grateful to a Loving Father for the solid foundation of our Catholic Faith and for His extreme kindness in sparing us the agonies of soul and body of millions throughout the world.

If your Catholic education has done anything for you, we sincerely hope that it has inculcated both the understanding and practice of Christian Charity.

To you, to me and to all of us, is given the opportunity to put into practice the lessons Christ taught us through our Catholic training--love and help of the neighbor, regardless of race, color or creed; to contribute in whatever way we can to the alleviation of the miseries of a suffering humanity.

One effective way by which Holy Name Students can show gratitude for their Catholic education is to be an example to others in their daily lives, examples of upright characters and spotless behavior. Your good example will not only show the true worth of a Catholic training, but will also make parents strive to send their children to a Catholic school.

Before closing, I wish to extend my thanks to all who have in any way helped Holy Name School--to the Sisters, Parents and Students and the many kind friends. God bless and reward you most abundantly.

Father Benanti, S. J. - Pastor

Oh, the music goes 'round and 'round . . . for a PENNY!

Sure, you know it's 'strictly terrif' getting the crowd to gether for a jam session especially when you have all the latest hit tunes to play on your electric record player.

Bet you didn't know, though, that you can play 100 records for just 1c worth of electricity! That's 5½ hours of jive for a penny . . . some bargain in entertainment, eh?

P.S. From The Editor

We've written, typed, cut and pasted--spent many tiresome after-school hours in an effort to make this the most interesting yearbook you've ever looked through. A model for those annuals yet unprinted, we leave this at Holy Name. In working, there were impatient words, trifling arguments, confused notes and misplaced copy to add to the difficulty of a broken typewriter and an overdue photograph. It was a time when nerves should have been, but weren't, up to the rush. Everyone was working overtime--unselfishly cooperating with the adviser and editor to give you a few pleasurable moments as you skim through these sheets. Amid headaches, confusion and fun we put the Mercian Yearbook together.

Getting the third anniversary issue in page form came as an adventure. Together with the headache of last-minute cuts, we found the confusion of an unidentified print and a lost proof. There was never an idle instant. Unwarned, we faced the surprises with uncertainty, never having enough time to be concerned by their unusual circumstances.

We did appreciate a few precious seconds of humor, though. These seemed to come just as the last clean scrap of paper was blackened, and the nearest drug store wasn't near enough to get more. Just as we had squandered the Lord's quota of patience, a casual remark from a witty reporter would break the tension and we, a weary staff, paused for a refreshing laugh.

Now that it's over, our job doesn't seem to have been as exhausting as we had thought it would be. Of course, this is meant as no encouragement for the future editor and staff; for them waits an unexplored adventure. We can say, though, editing a yearbook combines fun together with work. It was an unequaled pleasure to present this Mercian Yearbook to you; we hope you were pleased with its contents.

A journalism instructor, an editor, two associates, and a willing staff have put their thoughts between two covers, hoping you found the enjoyment printed there.
